Harold Barnum Industry Award

The Harold Barnum Industry Award recognizes an active IAFP Member for dedicated and exceptional service to IAFP, the public, and the food industry. The award consists of a plaque and a $1,500 honorarium sponsored by Roka Bioscience, Inc.

Qualifications for nominees

- Be a non-student Member in good standing at the time of nomination and during the IAFP Annual Meeting (when receiving the award)
- Be employed (or retired within the last 2 years) in a food industry-related profession
- Have a minimum 5 years of experience in a food industry-related profession
- Previous recipients of the Harold Barnum Industry Award, IAFP Executive Board Members, and IAFP Awards Committee Members are not eligible for this Award

Criteria for nominations

Please provide specific information on the following:

- Career highlights—length of service and positions held in the food protection profession

Provide a resume or summary of positions held related to food protection and other activities that highlight the nominee's dedication to the profession and that demonstrate the nominee's high personal standards.

- Leadership roles and specific achievements or accomplishments in the food industry:

Provide a listing of activities where the nominee was in a leadership role (e.g., supervisory responsibilities, committee or task force chair, project or program initiator, etc.).

Provide a listing of specific activities and their outcomes that would be considered significant achievements or accomplishments (e.g., developed a process or procedure that increased specific food safety; developed and/or performed audit system that improved plant safety; initiated and/or participated in improved regulation change, etc.).

- Educational activities in food protection offered directly or indirectly to food industry

Provide a listing of involvement and specific roles in training programs, publications and/or other forms of educational communications (e.g., organized workshops or other training programs, authored or co-authored papers published in recognized journals or magazines, etc.).

- Participation in IAFP activities

Provide membership history and listing of past and present involvement in IAFP committees and PDGs, Annual Meeting attendance and program participation (e.g., speaker, symposium organizer, etc.), and other IAFP activities.

- Peer assessment of nominee

Provide no less than two and no more than three letters of support* from professional peers in addition to a nomination cover letter.

Additional points to consider under the criteria for evaluating nominee

Other activities or characteristics of the nominee that are not specifically covered under the above criteria may be provided to emphasize the nominee's dedication to food protection and demonstrate the nominee's high personal standards (e.g., other associations, volunteer and community activities, etc.).

Submitting nominations

Supporting documentation covering the above criteria should be submitted with a nomination letter,* letters of support,* and completed Award Nomination Form. A checklist and instructions for the number of copies required, submission address, and deadlines can be found on the Award Nomination Form.

Nomination letter and letters of support cannot be from a current IAFP Board Member*
