Sanitarian Award

The Sanitarian Award recognizes an active IAFP Member for dedicated and exceptional service to the profession of Sanitarian, serving the public and the food industry. The award consists of a plaque and a $1,500 honorarium sponsored by Ecolab, Inc.

Qualifications for nominees

- Be a non-student Member in good standing at the time of nomination and during the IAFP Annual Meeting (when receiving the award)
- Be employed (or retired within the past 2 years) as a sanitarian in industry or in a federal, state, or local regulatory agency
- Have a minimum 5 years of experience as a sanitarian
- Previous recipients of the Sanitarian Award, IAFP Executive Board Members, and IAFP Awards Committee Members are not eligible

Criteria for nominations

Please provide specific information on the following:

- Career highlights—length of service and positions held in the profession of Sanitarian
Provide a resume or summary of positions held in the profession of Sanitarian and those related to food protection and other activities that highlight the nominee's dedication to the profession and that demonstrate the nominee's high personal standards.
- Leadership roles and specific achievements or accomplishments as a Sanitarian
Provide a listing of activities where the nominee was in a leadership role (e.g., supervisory responsibilities, committee or task force chair, project or program initiator, etc.).

Provide a listing of specific activities and their outcomes that would be considered significant achievements or accomplishments (e.g., developed or participated in the development or improvement of regulations that increased food safety; worked with industry to resolve a food safety concern; developed regulatory audit system; etc.).

- Educational activities in food protection offered directly or indirectly to food industry
Provide a listing of involvement and specific role in training programs, publications and/or other forms of educational communications (e.g., organized workshops or other training programs, authored or co-authored papers or educational materials).
- Participation in IAFP activities
Provide membership history and listing of past and present involvement in IAFP committees and PDGs, Annual Meeting attendance and program participation (e.g., speaker, symposium organizer, etc.) and other IAFP activities.
- Peer assessment of nominee
Provide no less than two and no more than three letters of support* from professional peers in addition to a nomination cover letter.

Additional points to consider under the criteria for evaluating nominee

Other activities or characteristics of the nominee that are not specifically covered under the above criteria may be provided to emphasize the nominee's dedication to food protection and demonstrate the nominee's high personal standards (e.g., other associations, volunteer and community activities, etc.).
