✚ Affiliate Membership Achievement Award
How did your Affiliate grow AND retain members during the past year? Please provide details on:

• how new members were recruited throughout the year;
• the number of new members joining the Affiliate;
• the percent increase in membership from 2019 to 2020;
• specific efforts on how you retained existing members; and
• other methods related to helping grow and maintain your membership.

The Ohio Association for Food Protection held its Winter Meeting and Annual Business Meeting on January 29, 2020 at Columbus Public Health in Columbus, Ohio. The Winter Meeting is an educational meeting with a target audience which mirrors our membership: regulatory, private industry, and academia. Our objective is to provide a quality program, as well as continuing education credits for our registered sanitarians. We had 30 in attendance, including 13 new members.

The day started with Ahmed Yousef, Ph.D., The Ohio State University speaking to us about “Emerging Natural Antimicrobials as Future Food Preservatives”.

We were grateful the IAFP Speaker Program made it possible for Kathleen Glass, Ph.D., Distinguished Scientist, Associate Director Food Research Institute, University of Wisconsin-Madison and IAFP Past-President to be at our meeting to present on “Intervention Strategies to Control Listeria monocytogenes in Ready-to-Eat Foods”.

The “Chipotle Outbreak 2018” was presented by Delaware Public Health representatives. Travis Irvan, MPH, Disease Prevention Program Manager; Stephanie DeGenaro, RS, Food Unit Manager; and Traci Whittaker, Public Information Officer.

Melanie L. Lewis Ivey, Ph.D., Assistant Professor Department of Plant Pathology, The Ohio State University, spoke about “Microbial Food Safety Hazards in Hydroponic Production Systems”.
The Ohio Association for Food Protection continued to provide an opportunity for students of The Ohio State University to present posters at our Winter Meeting. We truly value the ability to provide the students the chance to attend our meeting and find the arrangement mutually beneficial. We appreciate the efforts of Dr. Sanja Ilic, Assistant Professor and Food Safety State Specialist, Department of Human Sciences Human Nutrition, The Ohio State University, who made it possible for us to have student poster presentations again this year. Margaret Moodispaw presented her poster “Listeria monocytogenes survival in hydroponic vegetable production” and Holly Paden presented “Changing Behaviors: Intervention to Improve Food Safety Among Cancer Patients receiving Treatment”.

Christina Wilson, the Affiliate Delegate, attended the virtual Affiliate Council meeting in 2020, as she has every Affiliate Council meeting since 2008.

OAFP’s total membership for 2020 was 85, including 35 new members. OAFP experienced a slight decrease in membership overall from 2019, which was a 4.4% decrease which we attribute in large part to COVID-19.

We requested the IAFP Display Board and materials for the January 2020 meeting. Nate Oyelakin, RS, of Columbus Public Health was excited to win the free membership to IAFP.

Quite frankly OAFP has been promoting IAFP 2020 as a way to both recruit new members and retain existing members since 2018. OAFP members were really excited to have another opportunity to work Local Arrangements for IAFP. A large portion of our 2020 Annual Business Meeting was consumed with preparations for IAFP 2020 in Cleveland, Ohio. The OAFP members were anxious to learn what would be the same as when OAFP was responsible for Local Arrangements in Columbus in 2008 versus Cleveland in 2020. Initial staffing plans were discussed, as well as plans to support lodging and transportation for our membership who would be working the event.
Affiliate Education Award

What types of food safety education did your Affiliate provide to its members during the past year? Please provide the following details on all technical meetings, educational conferences, webinars, workshops, classes, and other methods pertinent to the interests of the membership:

- Background;
- Objectives;
- Agenda;
- Target audience;
- Dates held; and
- Numbers of attendees.

You may cut and paste copy in the space below or use a separate page if necessary; please limit your explanation to 500 words or less in 12 point type. (Do not submit copies of speaker Power Point slide presentations.)

The day started with Ahmed Yousef, Ph.D., The Ohio State University speaking to us about “Emerging Natural Antimicrobials as Future Food Preservatives”. Dr. Yousef provided a compelling argument for the compromise of natural preservatives in foods.

We were grateful that the IAFP Speaker Program made it possible for us to have Kathleen Glass, Ph.D., Distinguished Scientist, Associate Director Food Research Institute, University of Wisconsin-Madison and IAFP Past-President at our meeting to present on “Intervention Strategies to Control Listeria monocytogenes in Ready-to-Eat Foods”. Dr. Glass really caught the audience’s attention with her discussion of the 2014 caramel apple outbreak and all the work she and her students did in response.

The “Chipotle Outbreak 2018” was presented by Delaware Public Health representatives. Travis Irvan, MPH, Disease Prevention Program Manager; Stephanie DeGenaro, RS, Food Unit Manager; and Traci Whittaker, Public Information Officer. This was a great play-by-play of responding to the outbreak as it happened.

Melanie L. Lewis Ivey, Ph.D., Assistant Professor Department of Plant Pathology, The Ohio State University, spoke to us about “Microbial Food Safety Hazards in Hydroponic Production Systems”. Her slides about the tomato production really illustrated the challenges faced in this production model.

 Toxic Best Overall Affiliate Meeting Award

Did your Affiliate hold an outstanding self-sustainable (not sponsored/co-sponsored by IAFP) food protection meeting which you consider ‘over and above’ those normally held? If so, provide the following details, if applicable, on what led to a highly successful meeting:

- Type of meeting and the value it brought to Affiliate Members/attendees (does not need to be your Annual Meeting);
- Mission statement for meeting (if relevant);
- Content;
- Numbers of attendees:
  - Number of and overall percentage of Affiliate Members (for example, 100 total attendees with 75 of them being Affiliate Members - 75%)
  - Number of Guests (non-dues-paying Affiliate Members) and their affiliation to the Affiliate Chapter and/or meeting’s topic(s)
- Audience participation (through roundtable discussions, exercises, etc.);
- Topics:
  - Agenda (you may include a printed copy with your award application)
- Speakers and their employer affiliations (if available);
- Sponsors;
- Diversity of meeting participants (range of sectors represented, i.e., students, academia, extension, government, NGO, industry representatives, etc., which can be broken down into services, i.e., retail, education, research, manufacturing, etc., if available); and
- Other information.

C.B. Shogren Memorial Award

How did your Affiliate demonstrate exceptional overall achievement during the past year in promoting the mission of IAFP ("To provide food safety professionals worldwide with a forum to exchange information on protecting the food supply")? "Overall achievement" should encompass at least several of the following activities/accomplishments of your Affiliate during 2020:

- Exceptional achievement in membership;
- Types and effectiveness of communication and education;
- Awards and scholarships presented;
- Attendance numbers at meetings;
- Collaboration with other professional organizations;
- Donations to the IAFP Foundation; and
- Representation at the IAFP Affiliate Council Meeting (held during IAFP Annual Meeting); and
- Other pertinent information.

While not a requirement, strong consideration will be given to an Affiliate whose officers (beyond the requirement for the President and Delegate) are also IAFP Members. Provide a description and include any supporting documents. You may cut and paste copy in the space below or use separate pages if necessary; please limit your explanation to 1,000 words or less in 12 point type.
