Roxanne Sharp	Lifetime Achievement Award The Lifetime Achievement Award was created by the Association's Executive Board and first awarded in 1999. The award is the most prestigious award given by the organization. This award is bestowed upon long-time members with dedication to the high ideals of the MEHA and its mission. The recipient's accomplishments reflect his or her unselfish dedication and service to the field of Public Health and the goals of the Missouri Environmental Health Association. Nominations for the Lifetime Achievement Award are made solely by the Executive Board members, although suggestions from the membership will be considered.
Loran Prenger	Wilbur S. Feagan Award. The Wilbur S. Feagan Award was first awarded in 1992. Mr. Wilbur S. Feagan, a former member of our association and now currently the owner of F & H Food Equipment Company in Springfield, Missouri wanted to recognize the front line sanitarians in the cities, counties, and state that carry out the day to day duties of environmental health, education and disease prevention. He requested only three criteria for this award. They are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The recipient must be a current member of the Missouri Environmental Health Association. 2. The recipient must spend at least 50% of his or her time in field activities. 3. The recipient must show outstanding efforts. The award comes with a $600.00 honorarium and plaque.
Tosha Dyer	ENVIRONMENTAL PUBLIC HEALTH SPECIALIST OF THE YEAR AWARD This award is given for significant contributions in the field. These contributions involve but may not be limited to the following areas: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Noteworthy professional accomplishments involving the candidate's job-related achievements, leadership, contributions to programs and program effectiveness. The nominator should explain how these achievements have contributed to the health and welfare of citizens. 2. Professional organizational activities involving offices held, committee assignments and activities related to environmental organizations at all levels, local to international.

	3. Continuing education, demonstrating that the nominee has kept current and how he or she has contributed to the education of others. 4. Personal attributes, indicating that the nominee has demonstrated abilities, character, judgement, efficient use of time, management skills, etc., that may bear significantly on the qualifications for the award. 5. Community service activities, explaining how the nominee has served his or her local areas in civic and social activities.
