Where to Get Help

1

- ◆ Feeling unsure?: Attending a new meeting for the first time can feel intimidating, but there are multiple places to go for help and information at IAFP 2026.
- ◆ Find staff: Look for IAFP staff members—they wear matching shirts and name tags and are eager to help attendees.
- ◆ Registration desk: During conference hours, there is always a staff member at the registration desk.
- ◆ Ask experienced members: You can also approach an IAFP member with ribbons showing 5+ years of membership, PDG or committee leadership, ex-board service, or long-time active attendance.

Quick Confidence Boost

2

- ◆ Best strategy: If you are not sure where to go or what to do next, ask a staff member first or talk with an experienced attendee wearing multiple ribbons.

Tip: Asking for help early can make the whole meeting feel much easier.

Look for staff badges and matching shirts, or find attendees with multiple ribbons.
